

HEALTH & FAITH FORUM: BIOETHICS AND WHOLENESS GRAND ROUNDS

Exploring issues in ethics and wholeness across the disciplines

Wednesday, April 9, 2008

*The Power of Simple Presence:
The Use of Mindfulness Meditation Techniques Within Healthcare*

John Testerman, MD, PhD
Chair, family medicine
School of Medicine, Loma Linda University

Siroj Sorajakool, PhD
Professor, religion
Psychology and counseling
School of Religion, Loma Linda University

Wednesday, May 14, 2008

*Is Moral Judgment Competency in Decline?
Evidence From Twenty Years of Defining Issues Test Data*

Muriel Bebeau, PhD, MA
Professor, division of health ecology
Department of primary dental care
School of Dentistry, University of Minnesota

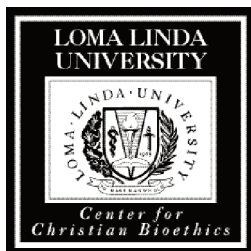

Wednesday, May 28, 2008

What Might Climate Change Mean for American Medical Care?

Andrew Jameton, PhD
Professor, department of preventive & societal medicine
College of Medicine, University of Nebraska Medical Center

Wong Kerlee International Conference Center

12:00 noon to 1:00 p.m.

SPONSORED BY
The Center for Christian Bioethics
&
The Center for Spiritual Life & Wholeness
Loma Linda University and
Loma Linda University Adventist Health Sciences Center

