

SCHOOL OF ALLIED HEALTH PROFESSIONS

Personal check-off sheet for International students applying to Loma Linda University School of Allied Health Professions Programs

When applying:

Send all application elements to:

Loma Linda University
School of Allied Health Professions
Nichol Hall Rm 1605
Loma Linda Ca 92350

Completed	Date	Application element
		Online Application (Paper applications are no longer accepted)
		$60 Application Fee
		Transcript Evaluation from a LLU approved eval center
		Request transcripts to be sent to LLU by all former institutions
		Three personal Recommendations
		TOEFL Test results

Once you have been accepted, you will need to send the following...

Completed	Date	Acceptance elements
		Student confirmation card (sent in acceptance packet)
		Program deposit to hold your spot in the class (which is outlined in your acceptance letter)
		International student deposit of $6,000 in US currency ( to be applied to your last quarter of study.)
		Health records including immunization records before attending class. (Immunizations that are required include the MMR, Hepatitis A, Hepatitis B, TB Skin test, and varicella (chicken pox).
		Background check from mybackgroundcheck.com
		Any other requested elements outlined in your acceptance packet

Please allow extra time for processing once elements appear as received. Express mail (DHL, Fed Ex, UPS) is delivered and signed for in a different department on campus and then has to be rerouted to our admissions office and processed.

Refer to International student information on our website for further information.

(This form is for student use only and does not need to be sent to LLU as part of the application)