
Vietnamese nurse educators visit School of Nursing

The University's School of Nursing hosted three Vietnamese guests in October, 1995. Their visit came as a result of a partnership the Vietnamese Ministry of Health has formed with the School of Nursing, in which Vietnam is developing and implementing a baccalaureate nursing education program.

The delegation included Pham Duc Muc, Vietnamese Ministry of Health; Ta Khanh Hue, Nam Dinh School of Nursing; and Le Thi Hao, Hanoi Medical College. Patricia Foster, PhD, RN, taught the group a course in curriculum development. The group's trip was sponsored by the School of Nursing Alumni Association, the International Nursing Council, and ADRA-Vietnam.

Children's Assessment Center receives two grants

Loma Linda University Children's Hospital has received two grants for the Children's Assessment Center.

In the first, Lucy Cunningham, president of PacifiCare Foundation, and Rich Lipeles, executive vice president of development of PacifiCare, presented Albin Grohar, PhD, executive director for advancement for LLU, with a $2,000 grant for the Children's Assessment Center.

In the other, a check for $3,300 was presented to the Center from The Choir Boy's motorcycle club (whose members are all law enforcement personnel), In & Out Burger Corporation, The Fraternal Order of Eagles of San Bernardino #506, and the Sheriff's Employees Benefit Association.

The product of collaborative work with in San Bernardino County, the Children's Assessment Center is part of Loma Linda University Children's Hospital's outreach effort. The Center opened its doors in 1994, with the goal of providing an inter-agency commitment to reduce trauma and obtain the most accurate information during the investigation of child abuse.

Farmers Insurance gives to health administration program

Christine Olson (center), a representative of the Farmers Insurance Group of Companies, presents a check for $1,800 to B. Lyn Behrens, MB, BS, president of LLU, and Albin Grohar, PhD, executive director of advancement for LLU. The award will support Loma Linda students who are enrolled in the master of health administration program in the School of Public Health.

LLUMC's Outpatient Rehabilitation Center grand opening celebrated

On May 17, 1995, the Loma Linda University Medical Center Rehabilitation Institute celebrated the grand opening of the Outpatient Rehabilitation Center. Calvin B. Rock, DMin, PhD, gave the keynote address at opening ceremonies, which were attended by the public and the LLUMC Board of Trustees. Tours of the new facility followed.

LLU student awarded $5,000 scholarship by California governor

Governor Pete Wilson poses with Elaine Bobbitt, a masters in social work student at LLU. Ms. Bobbitt was awarded a Governor's "Call to Action" $5,000 scholarship. Five scholarships were awarded throughout California with one recipient from each of the following disciplines: medicine, mathematics, law, criminal justice, and public service.